PROFESSIONAL EMAIL

Email 1 — Write an email from a student to their professor requesting an extension on an assignment submission deadline. The email must follow all professional email rules.

Subject: Request for Extension on ASSIGNMENT 1 Due DD-MM-YYYY.

Dear Professor,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to respectfully request a short extension on the submission deadline for the [Assignment Name], currently due on DD-MM-YYYY.

I have made significant progress on the assignment but encountered an unexpected [briefly state reason, e.g., family emergency/health issue/technical difficulty with research access] that has delayed my completion. I am committed to delivering high-quality work and believe I can submit a polished version by [proposed new date, e.g., three days later].

I apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and would greatly appreciate your consideration. Thank you for your understanding and support.

Best regards,
Shreiya

Email 2 — Write an email from a student to an internship coordinator at a company, expressing interest in a summer internship opportunity.

Subject: Application for Summer Internship Opportunity – Shreiya

Dear Sir,

I hope you are doing well. My name is Shreiya, and I am a first-year CSE major student at VIT Bhopal University. I am writing to express my strong interest in the summer internship position at Company Name, as advertised on LinkedIn.

Through my coursework in data structures and machine learning and projects such as developing a predictive analytics tool using Python, I have developed skills in software development and data analysis that align closely with the role's requirements. I am particularly drawn to your company's innovative work in AI-driven solutions, and I am eager to contribute while gaining hands-on experience.

I have attached my resume for your review and would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background can support your team. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Shreiya
